1. As the consolidated disposition authority (CDA) for the Glenn Defense Marine Asia (GDMA) matter per reference (a), I determined that a preponderance of the evidence substantiates that in 2006, while acting as Commander, Carrier Strike Group SEVEN (CSG-7), RADM Michael H. Miller, USN, exercised very poor judgment regarding his relationship with Mr. Leonard Francis, the President of GDMA, a defense contractor and, therefore, a prohibited source for gifts per references (b) and (c). Further, through his repeated and increasingly familiar contacts with Mr. Francis, RADM Miller failed to display the requisite leadership by personal example that is required by reference (d) of all commanding officers, and established, throughout the deployment of USS RONALD REAGAN (CVN-76), a weak ethical tone which permeated the senior leadership of the Strike Group.

2. More specifically, I determined that the evidence substantiates the following:

a. On 9 Feb 2006, while serving as Commander, Carrier Strike Group SEVEN (CCSG-7), RADM Miller accepted the improper gift of a ship model from Mr. Francis by paying less than the market value;

b. On 9 Feb 2006, while serving as CCSG-7, RADM Miller accepted the improper gift of a GDMA-hosted dinner party in Singapore from Mr. Francis by paying less than the market value;

Subj: ADVERSE INFORMATION ICO RADM MICHAEL H. MILLER, USN

c. On 4 Jun 2006, while serving as CCSG-7, RADM Miller accepted the improper gift of a GDMA-hosted dinner party in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia from Mr. Francis by paying less than the market value;

d. On or about 5 Jun 2006, while serving as CCSG-7, RADM Miller solicited the improper gift of a GDMA-hosted dinner party in Hong Kong from Mr. Francis;

e. On 11 Jun 2006, while serving as CCSG-7, RADM Miller accepted the improper gift of a GDMA-hosted dinner party in Hong Kong from Mr. Francis by paying less than the market value;

f. While serving as CCSG-7, RADM Miller improperly endorsed Mr. Francis and GDMA with Bravo Zulu (BZ) messages and Letters of Appreciation; and

g. While serving as CCSG-7, RADM Miller violated the Standards of Ethical Conduct, which are applicable to all employees of the Executive Branch of the U.S. Government, due to the frequency in which he accepted numerous gifts from Mr. Francis.

3. The above findings constitute adverse information in accordance with reference (e).

MEMORANDUM FOR SECRETARY OF THE NAVY

SUBJECT: Accountability Actions Relating to Glenn Defense Marine Asia (GDMA) – USS RONALD REAGAN STRIKE GROUP (2006-2007)

References: (a) SECNAV ltr of 28 Mar 14
(b) VCNO ltr 5800 Ser N09/ of 28 Mar 14
(c) DoDI 1320.04

References (a) and (b) designated me as the consolidated disposition authority (CDA) for the above-referenced subject matter. This memorandum summarizes the CDA actions taken to date.

In the cases of VADM Michael H. Miller, USN, RADM Terry B. Kraft, USN, and RDML David R. Pimpo, USN, I recommend that (b)(5)

(b)(5) TABs A through C pertain. Further, I directed my staff to ensure that a summary of VADM Miller's and RDML Pimpo's lack of judgment in regards to their relationships with a prohibited source and foreign national be reported on the Joint Personnel Adjudication System (JPAS). I have also directed my staff to refer this matter to the Acquisition Integrity Office (AIO) for any action deemed appropriate.

(b)(7)(A)

In accordance with reference (c), any substantiated adverse finding or conclusion from an officially documented investigation or inquiry, or any other credible information of an adverse nature, constitutes "adverse information." I have, therefore, reported all of the substantiated adverse findings concerning each of the aforementioned flag officers to the Naval Inspector General, who will maintain a record of these findings.

One of the issues raised by this matter involves the use of Bravo Zulu (BZ) messages and Letters of Appreciation concerning GDMA, and when the use of the same crosses the line between expressing a permissible "thank you" for meeting contractual requirements and expressing an impermissible endorsement of, or preference for, GDMA. Understanding that the evidence received thus far only captures a brief snapshot of time, mainly in 2006 and 2007, (b)(5)

(b)(5)

(b)(5)

Finally, I note, again during the stated time period of this review, attempts by Navy personnel to circumvent the Navy's oversight responsibilities over contractors. My CDA team will brief Supply Corps senior leaders on the investigation to determine any lessons learned.

THE SECRETARY OF THE NAVY

WASHINGTON, DC 20350-1000

JAN 23 2015

From: Secretary of the Navy
To: RDML David R. Pimpo, SC, USN
Subj: SECRETARIAL LETTER OF CENSURE

Ref: (a) 5 C.F.R. Part 2635
(b) U.S. Navy Regulations, 1990
(c) JAGMAN 0114a

1. In 2006 and 2007, while serving as the Supply Officer, USS RONALD REAGAN (CVN 76) which was deployed to the Seventh Fleet area of responsibility, you demonstrated very poor judgment and leadership regarding your relationship with Mr. Leonard Francis, the President of Glenn Defense Marine Asia (GDMA), a defense contractor and, therefore, a prohibited source. During deployment, you engaged in repeated inappropriate contact with Mr. Francis. This repeated and increasingly personal contact evolved into a relationship where you were repeatedly paying Mr. Francis for personal expenses at a rate far below the market value of the items and services which were provided. As a prohibited source, Mr. Francis had a clear and obvious financial incentive to subsidize the purchase of these items in an effort to develop a stronger relationship with a senior officer.

2. You repeatedly and improperly accepted gifts from a prohibited source by failing to pay their market value or return them, as required per reference (a). You paid $1,000 total for at least three but possibly up to five ship models. The market value of each of these ship models was at least $870.00. You attended three GDMA-hosted dinner parties. The first dinner was held on 9 February 2006 at the Jaan Restaurant in Singapore. The second and third dinners were both in Hong Kong; one on 11 June 2006 at Petrus Restaurant and the other on 10 March 2007 at Spoon Restaurant. For the February 2006 and March 2007 dinners, you paid $50.00 for attending each of these two dinner parties. For the remaining dinner party, although it is unclear what, if anything, you paid for it, it is likely that you did not pay more than $50.00. You stated (b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(A) that $50.00 was a reasonable amount to pay because you were not savvy enough to know the difference between a $50.00 dinner and a $500.00 dinner, or words to that effect. The market value of each lavish dinner party was considerably more than $50.00 per person. For example, the total cost of one of the dinners was approximately $23,061.50, which equates to $768.72 per attendee.

Subj: SECRETARIAL LETTER OF CENSURE

As a Supply Officer with 20 years of service at the time, you knew or should have known that $50.00 per person was not the market value of these extravagant dinner parties.

3. You also accepted sightseeing and shopping tour services from GDMA for (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) and (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) of select senior officers on or about 9 June 2006 while in Hong Kong. You also twice solicited and accepted the improper gift of lodging reservation services in Hong Kong from GDMA; once for yourself, (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) and select senior officers (b)(6), (b)(7)(C) in May 2006, and on a second occasion for yourself and select senior officers on or about 22 February 2007 through on or about 10 March 2007. These services fell outside the scope of GDMA's contract with the Navy and were provided at no charge to you. As Supply Officer, you knew or should have known the contractual obligations and limitations of GDMA vis-à-vis the Navy. Nevertheless, you used your relationship with Mr. Francis to secure tour services and hotel rooms for the benefit of yourself and senior Carrier Strike Group SEVEN (COMCARSTRKGRU SEVEN) leadership.

(b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(A)

(b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(A)

The COMCARSTRKGRU SEVEN

(b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(A)

(b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(A)

indicating that he does not specifically remember discussing these matters at the time and that, if he did discuss them, based on the description of the events which were provided to the COMCARSTRKGRU SEVEN (b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(A) by the investigators, he does not believe that those seeking a legal opinion fully disclosed the relevant facts. (b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(A)

(b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(A)

the former RONALD REAGAN

(b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(A)

(b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(A)

He stated that he did not opine that you could legally engage in the described conduct. Furthermore, the former RONALD REAGAN (b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(A) stated that since he was not a designated (b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(A), he knew that only the COMCARSTRKGRU SEVEN (b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(A) would have issued such legal opinions. Based on the materials in the record concerning you, there are no exceptions to the acceptance of these gifts which are applicable to you in accordance with reference (a).

5. Reference (a) makes clear that notwithstanding any exception that might have applied to you, gifts from the same or different sources on a basis so frequent that a reasonable person would be led to believe that you were using your public office for private gain shall not be accepted. Given the frequency of the gifts which you received from Mr. Francis, your actions would have led a reasonable person with knowledge of the relevant facts to believe that you used your public office for private gain.

6. Furthermore, you permitted Mr. Francis to use your position as the RONALD REAGAN Supply Officer to promote the business interests of GDMA by coordinating with him the issuance of inappropriate Bravo Zulu messages on behalf of GDMA, and agreeing with Mr. Francis to conceal the true nature of a dinner party from the Hong Kong Ship Support Office, which Mr. Francis considered to be critical of his company. The timing of these official acts by you occurring after the acceptance of prohibited gifts, at least, created the appearance that Mr. Francis was influencing the performance of your official duties.

7. In matters of personal behavior, you were responsible to set the ethical and moral tone for your subordinates, per reference (b). Your improper acceptance of gifts as well as your inappropriately familiar and increasingly supportive relationship with Mr. Francis and GDMA were unsatisfactory. Your conduct constituted a significant deviation from the standards expected of all naval officers.

8. Your conduct during this period was contrary to the Standards of Ethical Conduct for Employees of the Executive Branch and U.S. Navy Regulations, references (a) and (b); standards which you had a duty to know and obey.

9. You are, therefore, administratively censured for your leadership failure. A copy of this letter will be placed in your official service record in accordance with reference (c).

10. Within 15 days of receipt of this letter, you may forward a rebuttal, consistent with reference (c), for inclusion in your official record, if you so desire.

1. In 2006, while serving as Commander, Carrier Strike Group SEVEN (COMCARSTRKGRU SEVEN), which was embarked in USS RONALD REAGAN (CVN 76) and deployed to the Seventh Fleet area of responsibility, you demonstrated very poor judgment and leadership regarding your relationship with Mr. Leonard Francis, the President of Glenn Defense Marine Asia (GDMA), a defense contractor and, therefore, a prohibited source. Prior to the deployment, you initiated e-mail contact with Mr. Francis, indicating that you looked forward to renewing your friendship. This contact began as a request for a shopping recommendation regarding the purchase of personal items. During deployment, you engaged in repeated inappropriate contact with Mr. Francis. This repeated and increasingly personal contact evolved into a relationship where you were repeatedly paying Mr. Francis for personal expenses at a rate far below the market value of the items and services which were provided. As a prohibited source, Mr. Francis had a clear and obvious financial incentive to subsidize the purchase of these items in an effort to develop a stronger relationship with a senior flag officer.

2. You repeatedly and improperly accepted gifts from a prohibited source by failing to pay their market value or return them, as required per reference (a). You received a ship model of RONALD REAGAN. The market value of the ship model was at least $870.00, for which you reimbursed Mr. Francis only $500.00. You attended three dinner parties. The first dinner was held on 9 February 2006 at the Jaan Restaurant in Singapore; the second dinner was held on 4 June 2006 at the Suisse Chalet Restaurant in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia; and the third was held in Hong Kong at Petrus Restaurant on 11 June 2006. You paid $50.00 for attending the GDMA-hosted dinner in Singapore. On 5 June 2006, you signed a personal check for $1,650.00, which you explained was to pay, on behalf of yourself and others, $50.00 per person for the other two GDMA-hosted dinner parties. According to your check registry, you also signed a check on the same day for $1,200.00 for a "CHAIR+DINNER+CIGARS," but you did not recall to which dinner this check referenced or how much of this amount was associated with compensation for a dinner. However, even viewing the facts in the most favorable light to you by assuming that the entire $1,200.00 was intended to pay for you and others who attended the GDMA-hosted dinner parties in Malaysia and Hong Kong, the amount was inadequate and still resulted in a gift from a prohibited source. The market value of each lavish dinner party was considerably more than $50.00 per person. For example, the total cost of one of the dinners was approximately $23,061.50, which equates to $768.72 per person. Further, you stated to federal investigators that paying $50.00 per person for each of the three dinner parties would have fully compensated Mr. Francis, or words to that effect. As a flag officer with over thirty years of naval service at the time, you knew or should have known that $50.00 per person was not the market value for these extravagant dinner parties.

(b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(A) indicating that he does not specifically remember discussing these matters at the time and that, if he did discuss them, based on the description of the events which were provided to the COMCARSTRKGRU SEVEN (b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(A) by the investigators, he does not believe that those seeking a legal opinion fully disclosed the relevant facts. (b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(A)
the former RONALD REAGAN (b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(A) stated that he did not opine that the Commanding Officer of RONALD REAGAN could legally engage in the described conduct. Furthermore, the former RONALD REAGAN (b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(A) stated that since he was not a designated (b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(A) he knew that only the COMCARSTRKGRU SEVEN (b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(A) would have issued such legal opinions. Based on the materials in the record concerning you, there are no exceptions to the acceptance of these gifts which are applicable to you in accordance with reference (a).

4. Reference (a) makes clear that notwithstanding any exception that might have applied to you, gifts from the same or different sources on a basis so frequent that a reasonable person would be led to believe that you were using your public office for private gain shall not be accepted. Given the frequency of the gifts you received from Mr. Francis, especially as two of the dinners occurred on dates that were only a week apart, your actions would have led a reasonable person with knowledge of the relevant facts to believe that you used your public office for private gain.

5. In addition to improperly accepting gifts from a prohibited source, you solicited a gift from a prohibited source, in violation of the ethics regulations, when you asked Mr. Francis to arrange a dinner party in Hong Kong for 11 June 2006.

6. You further exercised poor judgment by improperly expressing in your official capacity your opinion that GDMA was a superior contractor to its competitors, which is prohibited by references (a) and (b). This display of poor judgment was aggravated by the fact that you issued these endorsements within days after the extravagant GDMA-hosted dinners that you attended.

7. In matters of personal behavior, you were responsible to set the ethical and moral tone for your subordinates, per reference (c). Your improper acceptance of gifts as well as your inappropriately familiar and increasingly supportive relationship with Mr. Francis, a prohibited source, were unsatisfactory and cultivated an unacceptable sub-par ethical climate within your command. Your conduct constituted a significant deviation from the standards expected of all naval officers, particularly those entrusted with command.

8. Your conduct during this period was contrary to the Standards of Ethical Conduct for Employees of the Executive Branch, the Joint Ethics Regulation, and U.S. Navy Regulations, references (a), (b), and (c); standards which you had a duty to know and obey.

9. You are, therefore, administratively censured for your leadership failure. A copy of this letter will be placed in your official service record in accordance with reference (d).

As a prohibited source, Mr. Francis had a clear and obvious financial incentive to subsidize the purchase of these items in an effort to develop a stronger relationship with a senior officer.

2. You attended four GDMA-hosted dinner parties. The first dinner was held on 9 February 2006 at the Jaan Restaurant in Singapore; the second dinner was held on 4 June 2006 at the Suisse Chalet Restaurant in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia. The third and fourth dinners were both in Hong Kong; one on 11 June 2006 at Petrus Restaurant and the other on 10 March 2007 at Spoon Restaurant. By your own admission, you paid $70.00 for each of these dinners. The market value of each lavish dinner party was considerably more than $70.00 per person. For example, the total cost of one of the dinners was approximately $23,061.50, which equates to $768.72 per attendee. Further, you stated to federal investigators that $70.00 was a reasonable amount to pay, or words to that effect. (b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(A)

Subj: SECRETARIAL LETTER OF CENSURE

(b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(A)

(b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(A) You claimed that both the Carrier Strike Group SEVEN (COMCARSTRKGRU SEVEN) and RONALD REAGAN (b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(A) (b)(7)(C) had to approve attendance at off-ship dinners and that you had received specific guidance from your RONALD REAGAN (b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(A) that you could attend all four dinners. You additionally claimed that the RONALD REAGAN (b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(A) also spoke to the (b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(A) and that they determined that the cost of each of the four dinners should be around $70.00. (b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(A)

(b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(A)

The COMCARSTRKGRU SEVEN (b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(A)

(b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(A)

(b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(A) does not specifically remember discussing these matters at the time and that, if he did discuss them, based on the description of the events which were provided to the COMCARSTRKGRU SEVEN (b)(7)(E), (b)(7)(A) by the investigators, he does not believe that those seeking a legal opinion fully disclosed the relevant facts. Reference (a) makes clear that notwithstanding any exception that might have applied to you, gifts from the same or different sources on a basis so frequent that a reasonable person would be led to believe that you were using your public office for private gain shall not be accepted. Given the frequency of the gifts which you received from Mr. Francis, especially as two of the dinners occurred on dates that were only a week apart, your actions would have led a reasonable person with knowledge of the relevant facts to believe that you used your public office for private gain.

5. You further exercised poor judgment by issuing an official Bravo Zulu (BZ) message that described GDMA as the best in the world and unrivaled in the delivery of customer service, which is prohibited by references (a) and (b). The lack of judgment in issuing the BZ message was aggravated by the fact that you distributed the endorsement within days of attending one of the extravagant GDMA-hosted dinners.

6. In matters of personal behavior, you were responsible to set the ethical and moral tone for your subordinates, per reference (c). Your improper acceptance of gifts from a prohibited source set an unsatisfactory ethical tone. As such, your conduct constituted a significant deviation from the standards expected of all naval officers, particularly those entrusted with command.

7. Your conduct during this period was contrary to the Standards of Ethical Conduct for Employees of the Executive Branch, the Joint Ethics Regulation, and U.S. Navy Regulations, references (a), (b), and (c); standards which you had a duty to know and obey.

Subj: SUBMISSION IN RESPONSE TO SECRETARIAL LETTER OF CENSURE

1. I fully accept responsibility for my actions and only offer this response to explain the facts and circumstances addressed in the Letter of Censure.

2. I understand the significance and importance of ethics and positive leadership while in command. I have strived to set the example for my officers and crew throughout my forty-year Navy career and during my five command tours. I regularly engaged Staff Judge Advocate's assigned to my staffs during my career to ensure my actions were ethical and proper. I sought ethics advice and ensured my staff was trained and aware of potential ethics issues. I attempted to obtain the facts and encouraged my personal staff to seek clarification and ascertain the facts in relation to the acceptance of gifts and other ethical issues throughout my career.

3. It should be noted that the Reagan Strike Group staff had no influence in the selection of ports or husbanding agents during their time in Seventh Fleet area of responsibility. The schedule and husbanding agents for the Reagan Strike Group were coordinated with the Seventh Fleet staff. I extended courtesies to Mr. Francis like I would have for any other foreign official visitor interacting with a visiting Carrier Strike Group. I felt it part of my duties and there was no intent to foster a long-term relationship for personal gain. I had no intent to assist Mr. Francis or his company to procure additional business with the United States Navy. I have not fostered any friendship with Mr. Francis for the past nine years beyond coordinating a tour of the Naval Academy while I was assigned there.

(b)(7)(A), (b)(7)(E)

5. Over the span of the deployment, I had given Mr. Francis five checks in the amount of $4,603 for compensation for a camera, a model, three chairs, and three dinners. I fell short in properly assessing the fair market value of these items and dinners, but there was no attempt to hide my actions nor was there a reckless disregard for the ethics regulation. The chairs and model were presented to me as unsolicited gifts and I attempted to assess fair market value for items that are unique and wrote Mr. Francis personal checks to cover them. Refusing these gifts would have made a cleaner record, but was logistically difficult. Regardless, I attempted in each instance to meet the requirements for the acceptance of each of these gifts and dinners.

6. I have strived to serve honorably every day of my forty-plus year career. I accept responsibility for my actions but ask that my career be judged not based on these isolated incidents but rather on my honorable service over the span of forty years. Since 2006, I have served honorably on the US Fleet Forces staff, the CNO/SECNAV staff as the Chief of Legislative Affairs, and for the past four years as the Superintendent of the United State Naval Academy.

7. I have the greatest respect for your leadership and agree that I should have used better judgment in my interactions with Mr. Francis. I fully intended to comply with my ethical responsibilities and to avoid any actual or perceived lapses. I agree that I should have been more diligent in verifying the fair market values for what I received and for what I personally paid. I know now that I should have avoided any personal interaction whatsoever with Mr. Francis. I offer my sincere apology for this entire episode and will rely on your fairness and integrity regarding my case.
